Giving

Many people have asked how they can continue to financially support the Cathedral parish while public Masses are suspended. As you may know, the Cathedral operating budget is 100% dependent on Offertory contributions throughout the year. About 18% of our donations come through electronic giving. The balance of the giving comes through the regular Sunday collection (82%). With the suspension of public Masses, we will lose about half of our income.

It is also true that during this crisis, many people will suffer financial hardship through the temporary loss of employment, a reduction in investment-based retirement income, or the need to support other family members. Keeping in mind both of these realities, we ask that you consider the following, remembering that no one is expected to financially endanger themselves or their family:

Please continue to support the Cathedral parish through your donations:

- Mail in your usual donation amount by check to 823 Cathedral Place, Richmond, VA 23220
- Use Vanco, our online giving platform (Click Here). You can set up one-time or recurring donations using your bank account or credit card. If you previously have not set up your account in Vanco, you can do so easily. Remember, you have total control over your giving using Vanco.
- You can text the amount you wish to donate to (804) 315-0903.

At this time, the Cathedral parish has suspended all discretionary spending. We are focused on carefully stewarding the donations of our parishioners so that the essential work of the Church can continue. We will be here throughout this time of crisis. We are here for you! You are in our prayers; please keep us in yours.

RCIA Frequently Asked Questions

RCIA is a process of conversion and spiritual formation for individuals who are interested in living the Christian life in the Catholic tradition. It is a time of prayer, study, reflection, faith sharing, ongoing discernment and participation in parish life.

1. How do I begin the RCIA process?

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, we welcome your questions about what it means to live in the Catholic tradition.

2. What if I feel unsure of the RCIA process?

Feeling unsure is natural. After all, joining a particular faith community is a significant step.

3. When do I begin?

The first step is to make an appointment with the RCIA coordinator to discuss your questions and talk about the RCIA process.

To learn more about RCIA please contact Maria Thorsen

Diocesan Annual Appeal

Welcome to the 2020 Annual Diocesan Appeal – Building Our Family of Faith. The 2020 Appeal will provide critical funding to three key areas of our Diocesan Church: Advancing Social Ministries, Cultivating Catholic Leadership and Empowering Parish Communities.

In addition, our parish receives back a portion of the funds collected. This year, we are pleased to tell you the Cathedral will be receiving a significantly increased parish sharing formula of 50% for anything collected up to our target of $50,000 and 90% for anything collected over the target. This level of parish sharing is unprecedented and has been granted to us by Bishop Knestout to fund two key areas:

Cathedral Organ Project (70% of funds returned)

Cathedral Operating Budget (30% of funds returned)

Over the coming days, you will be hearing more in depth about the Cathedral's progress in these areas and how you can help us achieve our goals.

Paschal Candle NEW!

The paschal candle is the preeminent symbol of Jesus' Resurrection during the Easter season. (The term "paschal" means "passover," in the sense that Jesus' "passed over" from Death to new life; through him, Christians too "pass over" from an old life of a sin to a new life of grace.)

The paschal candle is prepared and lit at the Easter Vigil, in darkness, and so it becomes the source of light for the Church. The Easter Vigil includes the Exsultet, which proclaims the Resurrection in a poetic way by praising the paschal candle: "Therefore, O Lord, / we pray you that this candle, / hallowed to the honor of your name, / may persevere undimmed, / to overcome the darkness of this night."

The paschal candle remains in the sanctuary of the church throughout the 50 days of Easter, and is lit at Mass and other liturgical rites (Roman Missal, Easter Vigil, no. 70). It is then moved to the baptistery, where it used to light baptismal candles (Pentecost Sunday, Mass during the Day). For funerals, the paschal candle may be placed near the coffin to symbolize the Church's belief in the resurrection of the body (Order of Christian Funerals, no. 35, etc.).

Easter Season NEW!

Easter is not just one day (Easter Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord) but rather a liturgical season of 50 days. According to the General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, "The fifty days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost are celebrated in joyful exultation as one feast day, or better as one 'great Sunday.' These above all others are the days for the singing of the Alleluia" (no. 22).
