THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST CORPUS CHRISTI

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, commonly known by its name in Latin: Corpus Christi. According to the Council of Trent (1545–1563), “In the sacrament of the most holy Eucharist are contained truly, really, and substantially the body and blood together with the soul and divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ, and consequently the whole Christ” (Decree Concerning the Most Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, canon 1; quoted in Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1374).

This year, the feast of Corpus Christi inaugurates a three-year campaign of Eucharistic revival throughout the United States, which is meant to deepen Catholics’ understanding and appreciation of the Most Blessed Sacrament—Christ himself (<https://www.eucharisticrevival.org>).

COMING UP

AAM Conference Concert NEW!

Monday, June 20 | 8:00 p.m.

The Cathedral is honored to host the opening concert for the Association of Anglican Musicians (AAM) National Conference on Monday, June 20, at 8:00 p.m. Vocal ensemble The Thirteen of Washington, D.C., will perform. The concert is free and open to the public.

Cathedral Feast Day

The Cathedral's titular feast—that is, the feast after which it is named—is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. Typically, this feast is celebrated on the Friday following the second Sunday after Pentecost. However, in the Cathedral's case it is transferred to the following Sunday (June 26), and therefore takes the place, this year, of the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Universal Norms on the Liturgical Year and Calendar, nos. 58–59). Therefore, the readings and prayers used for the weekend of June 25–26 will be those for the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus (not the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time).

Every church receives a title—the name of saint or a “mystery” (event) of the Lord—to inspire the people who worship there (Code of Canon Law, canon 1218). Regarding the significance of the Sacred Heart, we read in the Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy: “Understood in the light of the Scriptures, the term ‘Sacred Heart of Jesus’ denotes the entire mystery of Christ, the totality of his being, and his person considered in its most intimate essential: Son of God, uncreated wisdom; infinite charity, principal of the salvation and sanctification of mankind” (no. 166).

Please Come and Learn, Pray, and Discuss

Wed. July 13, Tue. August 9 | 6:30 p.m. | Parish Hall

You are invited to learn about the Catholic faith. Come discuss and ask questions about the Catholic faith

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is for anyone interested in the Catholic faith. RCIA is a process of learning about the Catholic faith through prayer, scripture, and Catholic faith formation.

Please come to to an informal session to discuss and ask questions about the RCIA process and the Catholic faith. For information, please contact Maria Thorsen (mthorsen@richmondcathedral.org).

Adult Confirmation

Adult Confirmation is for Catholic adults who have already received Baptism and First Holy Communion. For more information about RCIA and/or adult Confirmation, please contact Maria Thorsen (mthorsen@richmondcathedral.org).

Marriage in the Church

"The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life and which is ordered by its nature to the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring, has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament between the baptized" (Code of Canon Law, canon 1055 §1).

In order for a Catholic to be validly married, he or she must be married in the Church; that is, in the presence of a bishop, priest, or deacon— unless a dispensation has been obtained (canon 1108 §1). Being married in the Church does not require that a Catholic's spouse be or become a Catholic.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that, "Since marriage establishes the couple in a public state of life in the Church, it is fitting that its celebration be public, in the framework of a liturgical celebration, before the priest (or a witness authorized by the Church), the witnesses, and the assembly of the faithful" (no. 1663).

I am happy to assist any couple who is married only civilly to be prepared for matrimony in the Church (tmarques@richmonddiocese.org).

—Fr. Tony

2022 Diocesan Appeal

This year, like every year, the Cathedral participates in the Annual Diocesan Appeal. The Appeal is the yearly opportunity for us to engage the next generation, provide for those in need and build Catholic communities. Not only does it support the larger ministries of the Catholic Church of Richmond, it also raises funds for the local priorities of our parish.

The Cathedral receives a significantly increased parish-sharing formula: 50 percent of the amount collected up to our target of $50,000, and 90 percent of the amount above the target to help fund the organ project.

Thank you to all that have donated already. We are 129% ($64,636) of our goal of $50,000.

Your gift to the Appeal makes a real difference because, together, we can enable our Diocese to deliver ministries and services such as heating and grocery assistance to families, health insurance for our retired priests, and tuition for our future priests to attend the seminary.

Scan the QR Code to donate, please reference Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in the memo line.

Cathedral Shop

The Cathedral Shop is open after the Saturday night Mass and the Sunday 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Masses. If you are looking for a Father's Day gift, there are new visor clips and medals available. There are a limited number of CDs from the Three Notch'd Road Baroque Ensemble available for $15. Come check out all the religious items we have in stock. If you would like to volunteer in the Cathedral Shop, please contact John Dougherty (jd23224@gmail.com).

"Flowing from the Secret Abyss of Our Lord's Heart": A Holy Hour in Honor of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus Tuesday, June 21 | 6:00–7:00 p.m.

The parish's next monthly holy hour will focus on the Sacred Heart, the ecclesiastical title of the Cathedral. The Sacred Heart is a vivid spiritual expression of Christ's love for humanity demonstrated by passion, death, and resurrection.

The format of the holy hour will be Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction, and will include the Office of Readings from the Liturgy of the Hours. According to a text from St. Bonaventure (1221–1274) that will be proclaimed in the Office of Readings, "Flowing from the secret abyss of our Lord's heart as from a fountain, this stream gave the sacraments of the Church the power to confer the life of grace, while for those already living in Christ it became a spring of living water welling up to life everlasting."

June Service Project: Every Day is Christmas in Bethlehem

The parish's monthly service project for June is to support the Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem. This Catholic teaching hospital in the city of Christ's birth provides state-of-the-art maternity and neonatal critical care to poor and at-risk women, infants, and children. At the Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem, Christians and Muslims work together daily, fostering peace through medicine. Bishop Knestout is a member of the hospital's board of directors.

Last weekend, Michele Bowe, a representative of the Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem, spoke at all Masses. More information about the Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem is available at <https://birthplaceofhope.org>.

If you would like to donate to the Holy Family Hospital of Bethlehem you can do so by going to our donation page and selecting Holy Family Hospital at bit.ly/3JkncDI or scan the QR Code:
